

Announcement of Rambhai Barni Rajabhat University

Subject: Policy of not accepting gifts and all kinds of favors from performing duties
(No Gift Policy)

Rambhai Barni Rajabhat University has conducted its operations in accordance with government policies and has placed significant importance on adhering to the development guidelines outlined in the master plan under the National Strategy, particularly with regard to the prevention of corruption and misconduct. The University expects all executives and personnel to serve as exemplary role models by demonstrating integrity and ethical conduct. This initiative aims to establish clear operational guidelines, promote values and attitudes that foster transparency, and prevent the acceptance of benefits that may lead to corruption and misconduct. It further seeks to ensure that all personnel of Rambhai Barni Rajabhat University perform their duties appropriately and in accordance with established ethical standards. Accordingly, the University hereby announces a policy of not accepting gifts or any form of gratuities arising from the performance of official duties (No Gift Policy).

In this regard, in order to advance reform initiatives in line with the aforementioned master plan under the National Strategy, enhance transparency within the organization, and cultivate values that promote integrity in the performance of duties as a core institutional culture, Rambhai Barni Rajabhat University hereby establishes this policy for all executives, civil servants, permanent employees, government employees, academic staff, support staff, officers, and all personnel under its jurisdiction. All such individuals are strictly prohibited from accepting gifts, gratuities, or any other benefits before, during, or after the performance of their duties, including during festivals and special occasions, where such acceptance may give rise to corruption and misconduct (No Gift Policy).

Please kindly be informed accordingly,

Announced on April 1, 2026.
